

EVENTS

★ Event A:

A water-cell collides with a land cell which causes an event. The event could for example halt the local growth of the cell structures.

★ Event B:

A water cell penetrates the land cell system. This causes an event. The event could for example spawn a vegetation or river system within the land-system.